YALE, QUAKERS AND TIGERS WINNERS OF FIERCE BATTLES ON GRIDIRON

COMIC SIDE OF THE VICTORY OF YALE'S ELEVEN OVER COLUMBIA'S HUSKY GRIDIRON WARRIORS AT AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK THIS AFTERNOON AS IT WAS SEEN BY ARTIST ROBERT EDGREN.

OVERCOME BY GAS IN TRENCH

Edwin Callahan, of East Seventy-third street; Thomas Lacey, of No. 322 East Twenty-fourth street, and John Lemon, of No. 502 West Thirty-ninth street, were overcome by gas late this afternoon while working at Twenty-fourth street and Sixth avenue. Callahan had to be taken to Bellevue Hospital.

SHOT WOMAN AND HIMSELF BEFORE BIG CROWD IN PARK

Man Supposed to Be Morris Sacks, Fired Three Bullets at His Companion and Two Shots in His Own Body.

Stuyvesant Square Park was thronged with women and children this afternoon, when one was thrown into a panic by shooting on the Second avenue side. A man of thirty-five was shooting bullets from a revolver at a woman who seemed to be trying to get away.

He fired three shots at the woman, murdering her; then he turned the pistol upon himself and shot two bullets into his body.

The man is supposed to be Morris Sacks, from citizenship papers found on him. There was also a note saying: "Please notify my brother, Bernard Sacks, No. 181 Second avenue, pharmacist."

Woman Has Three Wounds. The woman has three bullet wounds in her head, one being over her right eye, another behind her right ear and the third in the neck.

The couple had been noticed sitting on the Second avenue side of the park. The man was resting his head upon his hands and the woman seemed to be trying to push him away, when, without a word he arose and fired the shots. The woman started to run away but the man jumped up and fired three shots at her. She fell to the walk by the bench. The man staggered a distance of about twelve feet to a plot of grass and fell there. The woman staggered toward him and fell by his side. He put his arm around her.

Crowd Separated Them. The crowd which had been watching came up at this point and separated the couple. Patrolmen Kneeling also arrived and sent a hurry call to Bellevue Hospital, and Dr. Farce responded. He took the couple to the hospital, where the man was placed in the prison ward and the woman in the female ward.

After being taken to the ward the man asked for his wife and begged for poison to end his life.

It is learned that Mr. Sacks is a weaver, and arrived here after a visit abroad from Rotterdam four days ago with his wife, Hannah, who is twenty-two years old. Since then they have been living with Mr. Sacks's brother, Bernard, No. 181 Second avenue. They had luncheon there to-day and were apparently the best of friends.
